FRIDAY, Sept. 2-6 P. M.)

The brief span between the extreme price of gold to-day will illustrate the dulness of the market, for in these sensitive times an active buying or selling movement is certain to be attended by a sharp movement in the premium. The fact is, the street was completely in doubt as to the real situation of combatants and refrained from opera-The large commercial demand for gold this season kept the market steady atrong after it had once recovered the effect of the announcement that Napoleon was dead-a contingency which would be an important element in the solution of e. Under this rumor gold sold at 115%, but finally recovered to and closed strong at 116%. The ent of specie for to-morrow's steamers is not even approximately known, but in view of the large sales of sterling bills this week it is thought the export will be light. The course of the gold market is shown in the table:-

THE NATIONAL STOCK EXCHANGE. In order that all sides may be heard in the dispute sng the affairs of the National Stock Exchange we give the following interesting letter from the Presi-

NATIONAL STOCK EXCHANGE, | No. 9 BROAD STREET. | in consequence of so many false statements having appeared in the public prints in regard to the National Stock Exchange of late, I deem it proper to make a statement of the facts in regard to the case:-

The Board was organized in February, 1839, with about 600 members. Soon after the organization was effected the New York Stock Exchange passed a resolution admitting to its membership all members of the Government Board upon the payment of $1,000, the regular initiation fee being $10,000, about eighty members of the National Stock Exchange, who were members of the Government Board, availed themselves of the privilege offered bythe New York Stock Exchange and withdrew from the National Board.

By the constitution of the National Stock Exchange the memoers are required to pay twenty-five dollars every six months as dues. A large namber of the original subscribers neglected to pay their dues from time to time, and thereby by their own neglect became suspended members. In July last the constitution was so amended as to require payment of dues within ten days after they became due or the member forfatted his membership. About eightly members paid the dues faling due on first Tuesday in July. About the middle of August an action was commenced by a party, who did not pay or offer to pay his dues, for the purpose of having the Board dissolved and the property sold and divided among the original subscribers, claiming that the object for which the Board was organized had failed. A motion was made for the appointment of a receiver, on an order granted by Junge Barnard, to show cause pending the suit. On the 25th of August an order was made by Judge Barnard, appointing Mr. R. F. Andrews receiver, although all the alleged facts on the part of the plaintiff were decied fully and particularly by the defendants. There is no pretence that the Board is mostly and the time will be tried, and the legal rights of the parties settled. In the meantime the members of the National Stock Exchange propose to continue the transaction of their regular business.
